TRAINER'S PROFILE

TEH EE CHERN

HRDC ACCREDITED TRAINER | LAWYER

INTRODUCTION

Mr. Teh is a seasoned Civil Litigator who has been in active legal practice since 2017 and founded his own firm, EC Teh & Co., in July 2023. His diverse portfolio spans debt recovery, tenancy disputes, employment claims, construction matters, shareholder conflicts, family law, defamation, conspiracy, strata management, and estate administration. In recent years, he has expanded into corporate and commercial advisory, business agreement drafting, and conveyancing, serving a wide range of clients including property developers, multinational corporations, wellness providers, and social media agencies. Beginning in 2025, Mr. Teh has also taken on the role of legal trainer, conducting seminars for corporations and professional associations such as Business Network International and Rotary Club, where he translates complex legal concepts into practical insights for professionals.

PHILOSOPHY

Mr. Teh believes that the law should be practical, accessible, and empowering - not just a tool for resolution, but a framework for prevention and informed decision-making. His philosophy centers on demystifying legal concepts for professionals and organizations, enabling them to navigate challenges with clarity and confidence. Whether in litigation or training, he emphasizes integrity, strategic thinking, and real-world relevance, ensuring that legal knowledge translates into meaningful action.
